STRATEGY GAMES

GRIDSTONES: THE GAME OF PATTERN MATCHING

Gridstones is an elegant, gripping game of strategy and visualization. This critically-acclaimed abstract strategy and puzzle game is quick, fun, easy-to-learn and great for the whole family.

Simply place STONES on (or remove from) the GRID to create the matching pattern to one of the cards in your hand. But be careful – your opponents will be trying to match their cards too, and the grid will change with every turn.

For two to seven players, Gridstones takes about 20 minutes to play and is for ages seven and up.

PURPLEX

It's fun to get Purplexed! It sounds easy – just add your tiles to the play area to make shapes and collect tokens. But remember, the more tokens players collect, the less those tokens are worth. Now that's Purplexing!

Think you can figure it out? If you're ready to outsmart the competition in this quick-thinking, fun game of shape building, grab a few friends and show them it's time to get Purplexed!

For two to five players, Purplex takes about 30 minutes to play and is for ages 10 and up.
